GERMANTOWN

Asks to be Incorporated, and from [Vilinge to Become a City of Magnitude and Municipat Importance.

The Citizens Desire to be Protected from Drankennes, Rowdylsm, Epi-demics and Other Disagree-

A charter of incorporation was filed yester-day at the office of the county register by a number of the residents of Germantown in this county, stating that the place is a vil-lage situated and lying on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, fifteen miles east of Memphis, in Shelby county, T. nnessee, and that it will be greatly to the advantage of its citizens and that of the surrounding coun-try to have their town incorporated under will render an opinion in a few days. The case involves the application of the sureties on the official bond of James A. Anderson, public administrator, to be released from any responsibility by reason of any defalcations of said Anderson.

—Last Monday night Bob Woodford, a young man about town who runs with the passabutoher gang, while on a spree broke by any other power than the municipal laws there being no power to festrain these of-fenders; as dead stock is allowed to remain in their streets, to the great annoy-ance of the inhabitants and the endangering f public health; and as they have no pow to prevent persons from districts infe their midst bringing the seeds of disease will them, from which they have suffered greatly in the past; as their streets need that care which can only be had from a system of municip laws, and as all these troubles and grie-and can be reached and removed only by an inco poration, therefore the petitioners respectfully pray that a charter be granted them for the purpose of incorporating their town with the following surveyed lines and limits, viz: Beginning at a stake in the center of the Hernando and Germantown road, and run--J. H. Dooner, the clerk in the office of ning twenty chains, or one-quarter of a milouth of the southeast corner of the railroad depot in Germantown, runs thence east on on the State line road; thence north forty chains, or one half mile, to a stake, which is the northeast corner; thence west forty chains, or one-half mile, to a stake in Shepherd's garden, north of the Memphis and Charleston railroad; thence south forty chains, or one-half mile, to a stake; thence east twenty chains, or one quarter of a mile, to the bagin-ning, containing one hundred and sixty sures, the northeast corner of the depot being the Foute to become a candidate, which he has been consented to do, and is now before the people. Judge Foute's eminent fitness for the position of magistrate and ex officion member of the county court is sufficiently vouched for in the very pressing call made upon him in a recent issue of the Appeal over the signatures of so many prominent over the signatures of so many prominent ally advanced or injured by the proper or improper and regular administration and enforcement of the law, and to whom is afforded the means of knowing and every reason to ascertain and secure the election of the best man.
